ECU DIVISION OF ORAL AND MAXilloFACIAL PATHOLOGY
BIOPSY SERVICE
WHAT TO SUBMIT...

- Any lesion suspicious for malignancy
  - Enlarging mass
  - Non-healing ulceration
  - Friable tissue
  - Induration on palpation
  - Persistence of mucosal changes after removal of irritant
- Clinically benign or inflammatory/reactive lesions to confirm (and properly document) clinical impression
- Radiolucent/Radiopaque lesions
- Periapical lesions
Click on “Forms” and add a new one.
Select PATHRS - Surgical Pathology from the dropdown list.
Fill all the required information
Required fields in Red
HOW TO SUBMIT A SPECIMEN FOR MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION

1. Place tissue in formalin bottle
2. Print biopsy requisition form directly from axiUm
3. Print copy of the patient’s medical insurance and ID
4. Label the formalin bottle with the patient’s information
5. Place specimen and paperwork in a Biohazard plastic bag
6. The box for submission and processing is at the AEGD Clinic Dispensary (1st floor)
REMEMBER TO FILL THE LABEL OF THE SPECIMEN BOTTLE WITH THE PATIENT’S INFORMATION

- First and last name
- Date of birth
- Date of surgery
- Referring Doctor
- Biopsy site
ECU ORAL & MAXILLOFACIAL PATHOLOGY BIOPSY SERVICE

SUBMISSION PROCESS

Box at the AEGD Clinic Dispensary (1st Floor)

Tissue will be processed and interpreted

You will get a notification on Axium once the report is finalized.
DIRECT IMMUNOFLOUORESCENCE
1. Place tissue in Michel’s fixative bottle
2. Print biopsy requisition form directly from Axium
3. Fill the Surgical Pathology Consultation form
4. Print copy of the patient’s medical insurance and ID
5. Label the bottle with the patient’s information
6. Place specimen and paperwork in a Biohazard plastic bag
7. Box for processing in the AEGD Clinic (1st floor)
Fill with all the pertinent information
Box at the AEGD Clinic Dispensary (1st Floor)

- Tissue in Michel’s for DIF
- Tissue in formalin

You will get a notification on axiUm once the report is finalized.

The DIF report will be available at “Patient Attachments”.

MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION AND DIRECT IMMUNOFLOUORESCENCE

Tissue in formalin
SUBMITTING BIOPSIES FROM A CSLC
ALL BIOPSY SAMPLES SHOULD BE DIRECTED TO ROSS HALL FOR PROCESSING

Division of Oral Pathology
1851 MacGregor Downs Rd
Mail Stop 701
Greenville, NC 27834-4354
HOW TO SUBMIT A SPECIMEN FOR MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION

1. Place tissue in formalin bottle
2. Print biopsy requisition form directly from axiUm
3. Print copy of the patient’s medical insurance and ID
4. Label the formalin bottle with the patient’s information
5. Place specimen and paperwork in a Biohazard plastic bag
6. Send biopsy kit to the Division of Oral Pathology at Ross Hall
You will get a notification on Axium once the report is finalized.

Tissue will be processed and interpreted.
- Histopathology (microscopic examination)
- Immunohistochemistry
- Diagnostic molecular pathology
- Clinical and histopathology consultations
- We are available to discuss biopsy results and next steps including referral to other services